

Bible Reading Plan for March 2008

This month we continue our readings in both the Old and New Testaments. In the OT we will finish II Chronicles, read Ezra, and begin Nehemiah. In the New Testament we will finish Revelation and begin the Gospel of John.

The readings are not very long and there are some days when no readings are assigned.

We encourage you to set aside a quiet, undistracted time to spend in God's word. Always pray before reading that God will speak to you through that day's study time. Watch for lessons and principles that can speak to you right now.

Keep a list of questions that come up as you read – find someone to discuss these observations with.

The Book of II Chronicles

This book tells of the time of Solomon and then the history of the Southern Kingdom – Judah – after the division of the people. It does not follow the history of the Northern Kingdom – Israel. That history is found in I & II Kings.

The Books of Ezra and Nehemiah

These two books tell the stories of the Jews return to Jerusalem from their Babylonian captivity. Pay special attention to their return to the Word and their intent to honor God through obedience, faith, and trust.

The Book of Revelation

You will finish this book by reading the final descriptions of judgment as well as the amazing images of heaven.

The Book of John

Jesus is God in the flesh. This book never wanders from that teaching. See how many ways this is taught.
